Since 1971 Triangle has empowered people with disabilities and their families. We provide individualized employment, residential, health and life development opportunities that help people lead rich, fulfilling lives. Many of Triangle's cutting-edge services such as our School-to-Career Project and Ablevision television show have received national awards and have served as models for other organizations. In 2009 Triangle will empower over 3,000 people throughout southern New England.

All proceeds will help provide support, challenge and opportunity to those we serve.
